Dear Parents/Carers,

In February the children will be celebrating E-Safety week focusing on the theme 'Together for a better internet.' We will be holding a parent workshop on Monday 10th February at 2.30pm-3.00pm in Base12 for you to attend which will be delivered by our Computing specialist Mr Smith.

Mr Smith works throughout the school helping with the planning and delivery of Computing. He is excited to share with you some of fantastic work that year 6 have been doing in their computing lessons designing web pages. He will then give you some important online safety advice including.

- Positives and negatives of the internet in 2020
- Helping to keep children safe when using phones and tablets
- The dangers of webcams and cameras
- Internet jargon YOU should know
- Advice from NSPCC
- Instagram and Snapchat issues
- Developing resilience to online use and content
- Free anti virus software for your devices from AVG

Please complete the slip below so we have an idea on numbers and return back to school by Wednesday 29th January.
