

The Grendel

The Vikings loved sagas about brave, confident heroes who were often direct descendants from the gods and fought vicious, evil monsters.

Beowulf is a Viking saga that tells the adventures of Beowulf and his defeat of a vile monster called Grendel.

The poem is over 3000 lines long (that's why it's called a saga!)

What do you think the Grendel might have looked like? You can research in books or on the internet to help you come up with some ideas if you would like to.
