Phonics Homework 2nd November

This week the children are learning how to say and write: th z ch qu. When two letters are together, and they make one sound we call them 'special friends' or 'digraphs.' Encourage them to practise saying the letter sounds and use paper, paint, chalk or pens to practise writing them.