Read a book (or a chapter from a book) that has a snowy setting or character.	Build a snowman.	Make a paper plate snowflake or snowman decoration.	Tidy your bedroom.	Aim a snowball at a target.
Write an acrostic poem for the word 'snow'.	Help to shovel some snow from a pathway or driveway.	Put on some thick winter gloves.	Go on a wintry walk.	Put some food out for the birds.
Wear a woolly hat.	Play a board game.		Drink a hot chocolate.	Make a snow angel.
Ride on a sledge.	Dance to a snowy song.	Write an imaginary story about a snow day adventure.	Wrap yourself up in a blanket or duvet.	Make some footprints in the snow.
Make a wintry collage using clippings from newspapers and magazines.	Have a snowball fight (but be careful!).	Build a snow fort (or a warm inside fort made from blankets).	Carefully, use white paper and scissors to create a symmetrical snowflake.	Catch a snowflake on your tongue.
